

Finding Your Family Connections

Are you looking for your family history but you don't know where to start? In 2010 the Tri-City Genealogical Society Mid-Columbia Library volunteers will present a series of workshops on finding your family connections.

Dates:

- Saturday January 23, 2010 "Getting Started with Your Family History." Items you should bring with you are names and dates of births, marriages, deaths, and locations of these events. Also bring any military information you may have gathered on your ancestors.
 - Tom Moak, Kennewick Branch Manager, will tell us what resources the Mid-Columbia Library has to offer in genealogy research.
- Saturday April 24, 2010 "Understanding Sources & Documentations" aka "Without Proof, There is No Truth."
- Saturday July 17, 2010 "Searching on the Internet"
- Saturday Oct 23, 2010 "Accessing Resources"

Place: Mid-Columbia Library
1620 S Union St
Kennewick WA

Time: 1 PM to 5 PM

Lectures are scheduled to last approximately 50 minutes. The rest of the conference time is set aside for you to use the resources available at the Mid-Columbia Library and obtain assistance from the TCGS Volunteers.

Note: Items that you will want to bring to these workshops are family information (ideas are given above) and a laptop, if you have one. There will be some laptops in the classroom.

If you have any questions please e-mail me at sjavaughn@gmail.com or leave a message at the Mid-Columbia Library.
