Funeral Notice

Please join thousands of people remembering a great icon.

The Pillsbury Doughboy died yesterday of a yeast infection & complications from being poked in the stomach.

Doughboy rose quickly in show business but his later life was filled with turnovers.

He wasted a lot of his life on half baked schemes. Despite his flakiness at times he was still considered a roll model.

Doughboy was buried in a lightly greased coffin. Dozens of celebrities turned out to pay respects including Mrs. Buttersworth, Hungry Jack, Betty Crocker, The Hostess Twinkies, Captain Crunch, Uncle Ben, & Oscar Meyer. Aunt Jemima delivered the eulogy, describing doughboy as a man who never knew he was kneaded until he reached his expiration date.

Doughboy is survived by his wife, Play Dough, two children Jon & Jane Dough plus they had one in the oven. His elderly Father Pop Tart survives.

The funeral was held at 3:50 for about 20 minutes.

Time to pay your 2010 dues.

TCGS dues are $20, but this year we have been given a special opportunity. For $30 you can renew your TCGS membership AND become a member of the Washington State Genealogical Society (WSGS).

When you pay both memberships at the same time you save $3 off of the regular membership dues of WSGS, and WSGS gives TCGS $2.

Membership to WSGS will give you genealogical news from around Washington including upcoming seminars, changes at libraries, new resources available, etc. mailed to you bimonthly in the WSGS Newsletter.

From the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution:

After nearly a decade of scanning, indexing, and other behind-the-scenes work by DAR members and employees, the Daughters of the American Revolution is pleased to announce the availability of the DAR Genealogical Research System on our public website. Here are the direct links:
